

GRANTS MINISTRY

RAPID RESPONSE GRANT APPLICATION

INTRODUCTION

The United Methodist Foundation of Northeast's Grants Ministry seeks to empower faith communities and organizations in the New England Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in their ministry for Christ and service with the communities around them.

The goals for the Rapid Response Grants ministry are to develop or enhance partnerships with faith communities and agencies within the New England Annual Conference by funding strategic, vital, and creative ministry.

Proposals for Rapid Response grants should reflect, and comply with, all aspects of the Foundation's "Information for Applicants."

RAPID RESPONSE PROCESS

To respond to time-sensitive needs and opportunities, the Grants Ministry Committee accepts complete Rapid Response proposals from New England United Methodist ministries throughout the year. Completed applications will include all items listed below at the time of submission. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. In most cases, the completed application will be reviewed within two (2) to four (4) weeks. If there are any questions about the application and grant process please contact Adama Brown, Director of Impact and Grants.

Completed applications may be submitted electronically in one PDF to abrown@umfne.org.
